SUBJECT:

Daily Progress Report for Friday, 14 November 1952

BC/LEND

London advises that on the night of 9-10 November the British dropped 500,000 leaflets over Albania. They report that they encountered more than the usual amount of inaccurate heavy AA fire. The AA fire was, however, slightly more accurate than in the past and possibly came from new positions. (IN-12969)
